BLOOMING BAD BRITISHER RUN IN

John Turner, in Guise of Laborer, Incites Turmoil And Discord.

MEETING IN AN UPROAR

Inspectors Have Been on Turner's Trail Many Days.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

New York, Oct. 24.—John Turner, an alleged anarchist, was taken in custody by officers upon warrant sworn out by Secretary Cortelyou of the department of commerce and labor.

Four inspectors of immigration with several secret service detectives and a number of policemen, went to Murray Hill lyceum and arrested John Turner, an Englishman, on a charge of inciting and promoting anarchy in violation of the labor laws. Turner had just finished a lecture on "Trade Unionism of the General Strike," and the hall, which was crowded, was in an uproar when the arrest was made, but the police were too numerous for the crowd to do more than shout their disapproval. Turner was put aboard a revenue cutter and taken to Ellis Island, where he was locked up.

Immigration Commissioner Williams has had a warrant for Turner's arrest for the past five weeks. The federal officials allege that he had been going from city to city, preaching anarchy, and though trailed by a number of secret service detectives he was not apprehended. Emma Goldman sat on the platform with Turner and denounced his arrest, but urged the crowd to leave the hall without making a demonstration.

The police confiscated a lot of anarchistic circulars and cards which had been distributed announcing that "John Turner, chief organizer of the National Shop Assistants' (retail) Clerks' union of England, a member of the executive committee of the London Trades council, would deliver a series of lectures on Oct. 27, Nov. 1, 8, 9 and 15." Turner will be arraigned before a United States commissioner.

FATAL MISTAKE OF PEDDLER

Mistook Nitroglycerine For Syrup—Awful Scattering.

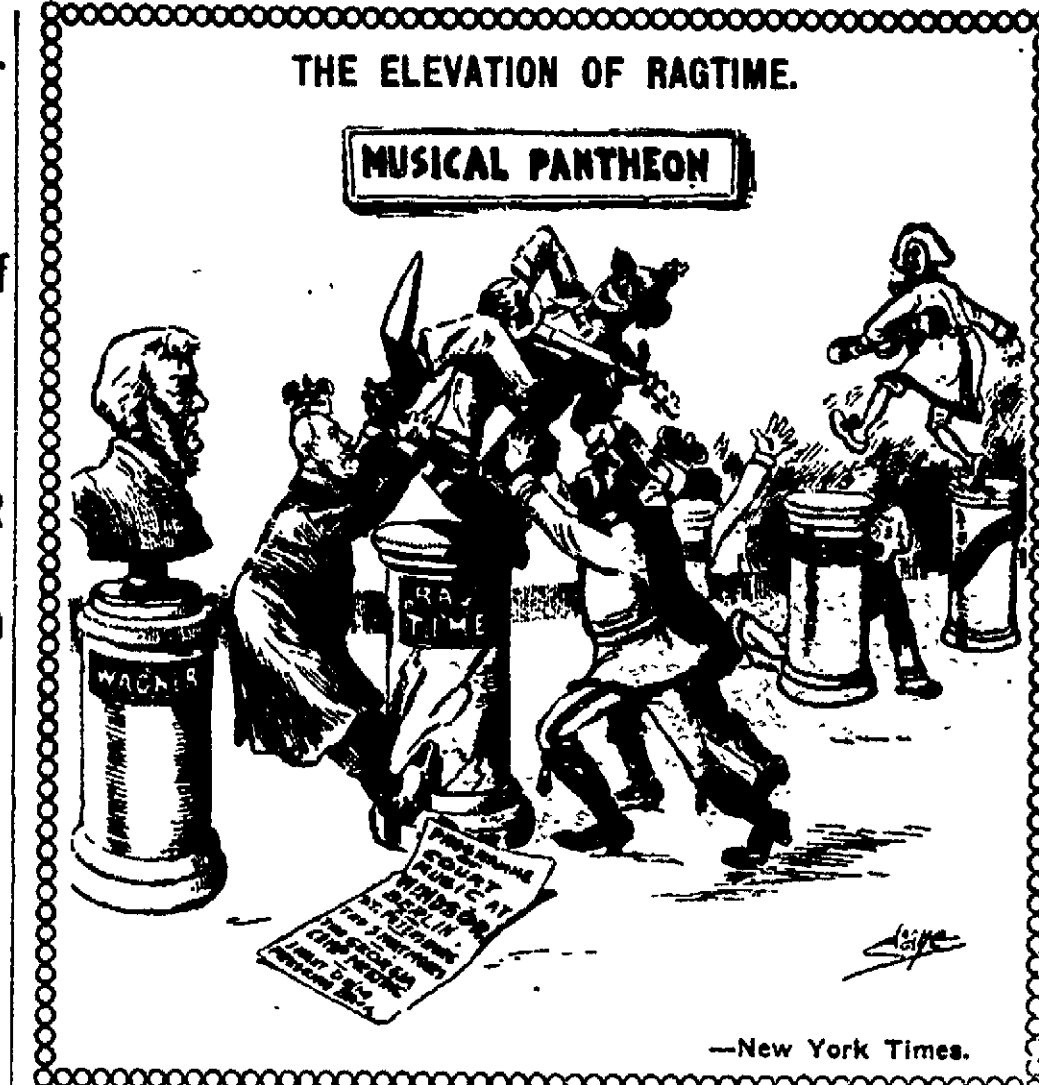

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Butler, Pa., Oct. 24.—William Marks was instantly killed and Patrick Hardy fatally injured here by an explosion of nitroglycerine. The men were peddlers of small notions and had camped in the woods near here. They found an empty can which they supposed had contained maple syrup from the small bit of sticky substance adhering to the top. Marks sat down the can between his knees and commenced to cut out the top so as to transform it into a water vessel. The small portion of the nitroglycerine at once exploded and Marks' head, hands and feet were blown off and his body disemboweled. Hardy, who was standing close by, had his eyes blown out and the bones in his arms and legs shattered in a dozen places. He can not recover.

RIFF-RAFF OF EUROPE RECEIVED

200,000 of Million Aliens Arrived in Year, Absolute Numskulls.

NEITHER READ NOR WRITE

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Washington, Oct. 24.—The total number of aliens who arrived in this country during the fiscal year is nearly one million. The annual report of Commissioner General F. P. Sargent of the bureau of immigration shows a large increase of steerage immigration over that of the preceding year, the aggregate for the fiscal year of 1903 being 867,046, an excess over that of last year of 208,303, or 32 per cent. The statistics show an increase in immigration from all foreign sources, suggesting as the chief cause of the influx of aliens into the United States during the year the inducements offered to settlers here rather than any special cause of discontent in their own countries.

Of the total steerage immigration there came from Europe 514,507, from Asia 29,966, and from all other sources 12,573. The total immigration of aliens to the United States during the year aggregated 921,518, or 191,042 more than the greatest number heretofore reported for any year. The greatest number of immigrants, 536,622, came from Italy, an increase of 52,247 over last year.

Of the total number of steerage aliens 613,146 were males and 248,999 were females, of whom 102,431 were less than 14 years of age. There were of these 3,341 who could read, but could not write, and 186,667 who could neither read nor write. The total amount of money brought by them into the United States was $16,117,618.

Exclusive of those denied admission at the land boundaries of the United States, 8,769 alien immigrants were rejected for various causes, the number of rejections being nearly double those of the preceding year. Of these 5,812 were paupers, 1,773 afflicted with disease, and 1,086 were contract laborers. Commissioner Sargent, in view of the arrival of approximately 1,000,000 immigrants annually, urges that legislation be enacted to improve the quality, morally and intellectually, of those admitted.

VOLUME OF BUSINESS IS BIG

Closing of Mills Barely Affects Industrial World, Says Dun.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

New York, Oct. 24.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Numerous labor controversies have appeared and more furnaces and mills have closed, the tendency being to operate only the plants provided with the most modern equipments. There is no anxiety regarding legislation at the special session of congress, and despite the curtailment of activity in many manufacturing lines, a heavy volume of business is being transacted. Flour mills at Minneapolis have fully resumed, and a big season's cut is contemplated at Minnesota lumber mills. Western traffic facilities are proving inadequate, the distribution of merchandise being enormous. Failures this week numbered 279 in the United States compared with 239 last year, and in Canada 2 against 22 last year.

SAKES ALIVE! HENRI CALLS 400 "CATTLE"

Stabs at Smart Set by Eloquent Kentucky Editor.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—Henry Watterson delivered his lecture on "Society" in Carnegie Music hall, Allegheny, before a small but enthusiastic audience. The usually cold weather that prevailed during the evening was responsible for the light attendance.

Mr. Watterson said in part: "Something over a year ago a most lamentable tragedy, taking for its scene the very vestibule of the temple of fashion—the sanctum sanctorum of the four hundred—led me in the line of my duty as a writer for the press to say some exceeding plain, and it may have been thought some very harsh things, about the nouveaux riches—the idle rich, the God-forgotten, world-dolting, pleasure-seeking rich—who set themselves as a law unto themselves, who submit to no restraints except those fixed by nature and the surgeon's knife, who have no intellectual perspective except that longest purse brings down the biggest titles, nor rule of conduct except that impelling them to eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow it may be some one's else turn; a code which I am told became altogether the rage in Babylon some centuries ago.

"I at least have never wasted many thoughts, or nursed any serious fears, about such cattle, nor shall I do so until monkey-dinners become as popular in Pennsylvania as they seem to be in Rhode Island."

CHILDREN BURIED BY SAND PILE IN WHICH THEY PLAYED

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

St Paul, Minn., Oct. 24.—Three children, Lucy Keogen, aged 3, Loraine and Russell Anderson, aged respectively 5 and 4 years, were suffocated in a sandpit on which they had been playing. The children had gone to the pit, were they amused themselves by scooping out the sand underlying a bed of clay. It is supposed that they dug away too much of the sand and the heavier earth caved in upon and suffocated them. They were missed by their parents and a general alarm was sent out. The search was unavailing until a boy who had been with the children directed the searching party to the sandpit and their dead bodies were found beneath a thin covering of sand.

MR. STOCKUM KNOCKS PROPS FROM UNDER ACCUSATIONS

Partner of James Glenn Makes Open Statement of Real Facts in The Case Of The Disgruntled Editor of The Warsaw Publication.

"Coshocoton, O., Oct. 23, 1903.

"Editor Age: The editor of The Warsaw Neutral has been persistent in the publication of false and malicious articles reflecting upon the integrity of the law firm of Glenn & Stockum and upon the integrity of myself who had special charge of the business transaction that is so misrepresented in those articles for the purpose of giving circulation to the feeling of animosity that he bears toward my partner, Mr. Glenn.

"I, therefore, in defense of myself and the law firm of which I am a member, desire through the columns of your paper to submit the facts to the people, and request that you publish this letter.

"The facts are as follows: Mr. Augustus Young came to our office and stated to me that he was unable to meet his indebtedness as it came due, and at the suggestion of his principal creditor had entered into an agreement with E. Z. Hays, the editor of The Warsaw Neutral, by the terms which Hays was authorized to take possession of his property and compound with his creditors, Hays agreeing to send a letter to each creditor asking the creditor to consent to accept his pro rata share of the proceeds of the sale of the property in full satisfaction of his claim, and upon receipt of letters from all the creditors, consenting to the arrangement, Hays was authorized to sell the property and divide the proceeds; and upon the refusal of any creditor to consent, Hays agreed to return the property to Mr. Young. Hays also agreed to inform Mr. Young, when he received an answer to any of the letters, of its contents, and agreed to keep Mr. Young advised of the progress he was making.

Hays accepted the property, advertised it for sale and threatened to sell it, notwithstanding he had not received the consent of all the creditors.

He also refused to give Mr. Young the information he agreed to give concerning the progress he was making, and said that not all the creditors had agreed to accept their pro rata share in satisfaction of their claims—that one had refused to accept the offer. Mr. Young then requested Hays to return the property to him in accordance with the agreement.

Hays refused to return the property and our client was led to believe that Hays was the attorney of the principal creditor and that he would sell the property and distribute the proceeds without securing a release from his (Young's) obligations. He also claimed that Hays had acted discourteously and ignored him entirely. Hays said he would not return the property unless his client consented.

I believed the statement made by our client. It was my duty to be-live him, and consequently that his attorney was also the attorney of his creditors and that our client's property would be sold and the proceeds applied in part instead of full payment of the claims of his creditors. It was clear to me under the state of facts, that Hays was the agent of Mr. Young and that Young was entitled to receive possession of his property on demand. I advised Young to replevin the property, but learned that on account of all his property being in the hands of Hays, he was probably unable to give a replevin bond. I was unable to suggest any other remedy. I requested Mr. Young to go with me to Mr. Glenn's residence and said to him that probably Mr. Glenn could suggest some way by which he could compel Hays to carry out his agreement. We went to Mr. Glenn's residence but did not find him at home. On our way back to the office, we found Mr. Glenn in the probate court room. I related the circumstances to him as outlined above, and he advised Mr. Young to make the assignment, which was made. I am convinced that he not only gave good advice, but the only advice that under the circumstances would bring the desired result, and it brought that result.

Mr. Jaeger, the assignee, Mr. and Mrs. Young and myself called on Hays at Warsaw. I stated to him that my client had informed me that the creditors of Young had not all accepted his proposition and that one refused to accept. Hays then stated that he had received letters from all the creditors consenting to and accepting Young's proposition, but he was unable to produce all the letters.

Both Mr. Glenn and myself had advised Mr. Young that if he could get a release from his creditors he should let them have what property he had, but if they would not release him, we advised him to keep the property in lieu of a homestead.

Hays posted a notice postponing the sale until a settlement could be made with the creditors, and evidently on account of the pressure brought by the proceedings in the probate court, Hays and the creditors were not long in coming to the conclusion that Mr. Young's offer was satisfactory. So the proceedings ended so far as our firm was concerned.

No fee was charged by Mr. Glenn or myself or by the firm of Glenn & Stockum. No fee was received by us and none is expected. The business was petty and our client unable to pay fees, yet he had rights that needed protection and we protected them gratuitously.

I will send a similar letter to the Democrat and Standard, which newspaper has been reproducing the Neutral's articles, with the request that it be published.

Very truly yours,
E. F. Stockum.

KILLED BY A CLUB AT HIS OWN DOORSTEP

Bold Robbers' Despicable Deed in Small Ohio Town.

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Woodstock, O., Oct. 24.—Highwaymen killed W. E. Lattimer, a prominent and wealthy merchant of Woodstock, as he was about to enter his home.

Three shots were fired, it is supposed by the robbers, but none took effect. A bruise on the back of the head indicated that Mr. Lattimer was hit on back of the head with a club.

He was unconscious when found and lived less than half an hour. It is supposed there were two of the highwaymen. Mr. Lattimer carried a large sum of money, but the robbers were evidently frightened away before they had an opportunity to rifle his pockets.

Mr. Lattimer had lived here many years. His widow and two children survive.

THE PUBLIC SUFFERS

Characteristic Art of Johnson Office Holders.

HIS APPROVAL UNDOUBTED.

Cuyahoga County Board of Tax Review Attached to Nag the Members to Quit, in Spite of Their Splendid Work Already Adding $20,000,000 to the Tax Duplicate.

Cuyahoga county is to be deprived of any power to increase its tax duplicate by proper revision, that is if the Johnson commissioners of that county can bring it about. As no Johnson machine men in any position are permitted to do anything without his knowledge and consent and approval, it seems impossible to escape the conclusion that the mayor of Cleveland had a hand in what has been undertaken.

Nearly two years ago the law of Ohio provided for a board of review of the tax returns of Cuyahoga county. The feeling was that this work would best be done by a permanent board of capable and careful men giving their entire time to the duties and becoming expert in their performance. J. B. Molyneux, Robert Simpson and F. A. Sardstedt were appointed, and their salaries fixed and accepted at $2,500 each per year. They have worked diligently and well ever since, having added already $20,000,000 to the tax duplicate, at a cost to the county of less than one-tenth of 1 per cent. Public opinion appeared to be well satisfied with their work. There was no murmur of complaint from the people, when suddenly and without warning the new Johnson commissioners of the county took action calculated to drive the board of review out of office. They could not get rid of the members of the board, because the term of their tenure has not yet expired. The next thing was to try to worry them out. Consequently the Johnson commissioners as one of their earliest acts voted that the board of review members should each have but $900 a year, instead of the agreed $2,500. It was expected that this would drive them away from the work which they are doing so well. While this supposition may fail, both because the courts may decide that the reduction is illegal, and because the review members feel such a just pride in what they are doing that they refuse to be driven out at Tom Johnson's behest, yet the action itself is a fine illustration of Tom Johnsonism wherever it has a chance to operate. It is self-evident that the $900 rate could have no other object. Men capable of doing such work as these men are doing in the city of Cleveland are worth all that they have been paid, and no $900 man would be equal to the duties. Further than that, if the Johnson plan is to defy the law of Ohio by trying to get rid of the board of review, altogether, that will simply result in leaving Cuyahoga county and Cleveland without any power authorized to revise any tax returns which might be made. This is a most serious matter, and in jumping into it the Johnson men have no known excuse.

The tax review board has been calling upon corporations and individuals to raise their returns, and has been so well equipped with the facts in each case that great increases have resulted in a number of instances. One of the most recent and conspicuous was that of the natural gas company owned by the Standard Oil company, which is operating in the streets of Cleveland under a perpetual franchise, with peculiar privileges, largely procured for it by Tom L. Johnson, and signed by him as mayor in defiance of all public protest.

Does this case have any connection with the summary treatment given to the board of review by Johnson's men at their first chance, or was there fear that even Johnson, himself, might be called before the board of review, just as other men have been and treated no different? They might actually ask him to tell how many millions of money he is really worth and where it is. With all his wealth in personal property, and none of it invested in Ohio enterprises, so that all of it is subject to Ohio taxation, he still makes oath to only $13,755 in all for taxation in Ohio, although worth so many millions.

Whatever the reason for the action it has been taken and Johnson must be held responsible for it. It fully exemplifies the arrogant humbuggery of all this talk about "just taxation." That is the last thing that he wants; at least for himself. It does not matter to him how the public interests suffer so long as he escapes.

NOT BY ACCIDENT

Was a Henry George Man Nominated For State Senator.

Howe of Cuyahoga Not Even a Democrat—His Single-Tax Sentiments Made Public by Clarke—Howe of Franklin for House of Representatives.

It was not by accident that Tom L. Johnson put a single taxer upon the Democratic ticket in Cuyahoga county, especially so since his nominee was not known as a Democrat until a few months ago. The first name on his list for state senator is Frederic C. Howe, and that he is a single taxer has been kept completely quiet. The fact was discovered in a curious way. The statement appears as incidentally made in a legal brief filed in September, 1901, by Mr. Johnson's present running partner, John H. Clarke, as general solicitor of the Nickel Plate railroad. Something in the same secret way was the nomination by the Franklin county Democrats of a candidate for the legislature who proves to be a single taxer—Frank H. Howe, running for representative.

How many more single taxers have been secretly selected by Johnson and put upon the Democratic ticket for the legislature without the party knowing of their peculiarity is difficult to determine. It is safe to say, however, that the emissaries of the Single Tax league that Johnson has had running around the state for months past, have not been kept busy without definite purpose and some result for their toil. The single taxers are likely to undermine and capture the other Democrats in the Ohio legislature if there is any chance to accomplish anything, in the same way that the Zimmerman forces were undermined and overthrown in the Johnson state convention. This is a feature of the campaign that may acquire prominence.

It is perhaps more than a curious coincidence that Mr. Clarke's brief, showing that Mr. Howe had been a single taxer for a number of years, was one filed by him in regard to the valuation of the Nickel Plate railroad for taxation, being his argument to the state board of equalization for railroads. "Replying to the argument filed with this honorable board by Hon. Tom L. Johnson on Sept. 5th," 1901, to use Mr. Clarke's language, he proceeded to demolish every point in Johnson's position on railroad taxation, both then and now.

WHERE DOES HE COME IN?

"Home Rule" For Cincinnati Is None of Johnson's Business. Was not 24,000 majority against his men last year in Cincinnati enough for Tom Johnson to teach him that the people there know their own business? Must they make it 30,000 or 40,000 again this year, or make it unanimous? Does he not get it through his head that he is mayor only of Cleveland, and not of the state of Ohio, nor even of Cincinnati.

"Home rule" is one of Mr. Johnson's pet fads. He has gone up and down through the state last year and this, with all the noise that could be got out of his burly frame and the red devil, declaring that every city in the state should be free to do as it please, irrespective of any act of the Ohio legislature. And yet, every time in the same speech he has made an equal claimant about the curative act, so-called, always speaking of it as if it were exclusively a Cincinnati measure. If it belongs to Cincinnati and Cincinnati is to have "home rule" according to Johnson, where does he come in?

His candidate at the head of his state ticket last year lived in Cincinnati. Johnson campaigned through that city in his behalf. This very matter was enlarged upon for all it was worth, more in fact than the people approved. The Cincinnati vote is the best evidence. Bigelow was the worst beaten candidate Hamilton county has ever had. That is the "home rule" verdict on the curative act.

IT HELPED IN RUSSIA.

"Noble and Heroic Attitude of Roosevelt and Hay." Mr. J. B. Greenhut of Peoria, Ill., who has been abroad investigating the cause of the massacre at Kishenev and the present condition of the Jews under Russian despotism, in his official report, gives this splendid praise from all who know the facts:

"However, what impressed and gratified me most was the statement and consensus of opinion of all these men—namely, that while the relief funds which were so generously forwarded from all parts of the world were indeed welcome, as it enabled them to give material assistance to those poor creatures whose all had been destroyed and who, if the early assistance had not been received, would have starved to death, but above all they said what they prized and welcomed most was the noble and heroic attitude taken by President Roosevelt and Secretary Hay in their behalf. They said over and over again that the moral influence exerted through the action taken by our Administration could not be enforced officially, it nevertheless had immediate effect on the Russian government, and resulted in a change of the governor and the officials generally in Kishenev, who are said to be less harsh to the Jewish population than their predecessors had been."

New York, Oct. 21.—The following cablegram was received by General Manager George G. Ward of the Commercial Pacific Cable company from the superintendent of the cable station at Midway Island: "Midway, Oct. 21. Vessel broken up, cargo and mails lost." The schooner referred to is the Julia Whalen, carrying the winter's food and supplies to the cable colony on Midway Island. Speaking of railroad taxation and all the talk Tom Johnson gives to it, he never mentions the fact that underlies the whole thing, namely, that his single tax upon land values, according to Henry George, would relieve the railroads from every bit of taxation except upon their land alone. The same thing would be true of every incorporation of every kind. The farmers, however, and the small home owners, would get the full burden of paying all taxation.

Another campaign inconsistency among the Johnsonites is the fuss that they make over the county salaries and fees, while their candidates for attorney general, Monnett, was the attorney who carried to the supreme court the Holmes county case that broke up the salary law and restored the fee system. While joint debates are in order, Monnett might debate with himself on this question.

The single land tax means, according to Henry George, its inventor, taxing all lands, and only lands, up to their full rental value, compelling their confiscation to the state. The present owners are to get no pay for their property. Ownership is robbery, says George, and Johnson is George's echo to this. It is plain, everyday socialism.

THE NEUTRAL NEUTRALIZED

Elsewhere in this issue appears a communication from Mr. E. F. Stockum, law partner of Hon. James Glenn, in answer to the recent screeds of the Warsaw Neutral relative to a matter in the practice of law wherein one, A. Young was the client and the firm of Glenn & Stockum the attorneys. The neutral butler attacked Mr. Glenn for his firm's part in this proceeding, in which it now appears that the Neutral editor figured to a considerable extent.

Although it was not Mr. Glenn but his partner who attended to this business, Mr. Glenn would gladly assume any part of the responsibility or all of it, since this law firm's relation to the transaction is commendable in every respect, as any unbiased person will readily understand on reading the communication of Mr. Stockum. The facts of the case, as clearly set forth by Mr. Stockum, completely refute the Neutral's accusations, which appear to be the outcropping of long-harbored malice. The misrepresentations do Mr. Glenn a gross injustice. The people of this county should not be misled by this unwarranted tirade which is inspired by some motive other than the people's good.

It is a noteworthy fact in this same connection that Joseph L. McDowell, the candidate opposed to Mr. Glenn, is of late publishing his own notices in the Warsaw Neutral, fought there are some newspapers published in the same town in which Mr. McDowell resides.

This is Mr. McDowell's right and privilege, and The Age has no complaint to make of that, but it goes to show the reciprocal relation existing between Mr. McDowell and the Neutral, whereby the latter is reaping financial rewards from its attacks upon Mr. Glenn. Mr. McDowell didn't send his legal notices clear to Warsaw before this campaign. It is plain to be seen why he does so now, as plain why the Neutral has repaid its efforts in hurling abuse at Glenn.

ISMS AND FADS.

Strtight Democrats Decline to Endorse Them.

SOME STRONG SENTIMENTS VOICED

Even the Very Gibraltars of Democracy Refuse to Have Anything to Do With the New Doctrines—Johnson's Selfish Schemes Spoiled and Hence His Attacks Upon Honest Men.

Even from Holmes county, wedded to Democracy, and from adjoining Ashland, almost equally fixed in its fastness to Democracy, comes a terrific protest against Johnsonism. That it is made by Hon. David Collier of Lakeville, one of the eight Democratic members whom Johnson has been trying to read out of the party because of their vote on the so-called Cincinnati curative act, does not effect the weight of his testimony so far as his neighbors and those who know him best are concerned. He is held in high esteem among them because they know him to be an honest and honorable man. All abuse of him by Johnson only reflects discredit upon the candidate for governor. In regard to the curative act, itself, his constituents continue to remember Mr. Collier's card to them about that matter in which he showed distinctly the selfish motive of Johnson's entire conduct in this case. Mr. Collier made it plain that Johnson was opposed to the curative act because it would spoil the scheme at which he, Johnson, had been working for months, to depress the value of the Cincinnati street railroads, so that he could buy them in at a price below their actual worth. This is a valuable point in the controversy, which Mr. Johnson has never attempted to refute or deny. There is other evidence in support of it, and Mr. Collier is too careful a man to make these statements without being well informed about them. Consequently, the curative act does not affect Mr. Collier with his constituents, who desired him to vote for the bill for reasons of their own that affected their local and home interests. The more Mr. Collier is called a "renegade Democrat," the more "renegade Democrats" it will make among the real Democrats of Holmes and Ashland counties.

In view of these circumstances, what Mr. Collier has said in an open letter to the Millersburg Republican and what he may have to say hereafter will carry peculiar weight wherever he is known. The Holmes county man protests against Johnson's "first destroying the Democratic party in order to accomplish" the destruction of the Republican party "for that is what this stuffed prophet and political boss from Kentucky in his egotism is going to do."

Collier says that Johnson "in his egotism places Johnsonism above Democracy and Johnsonism stands for Henry Georgeism socialism and all the other wild-eyed isms that can be conceived in the distorted brain of this boss political fakir of the day." He further insists, and there is plenty of proof that Mr. Collier has plenty of company in his opinion, that "true Democracy won't stand for the crazy fads and isms of this modern fakir."

These sentiments are so widespread among old-line Democrats that almost identical expressions keep on coming from all directions at the same time. Another case of the kind is that of Colonel Thomp Burton, of Youngstown long a leader among the Mahoning county Democrats and a man who never mimes words when he has opinions to express. Mr. Burton wrote to the Youngstown Telegram, being out of the state, that he had expressed himself fully to a friend at home in a letter whose publication he authorized. That must have been a pretty vigorous anti-Johnson document, for the friend declined to let the newspaper even see the letter. It was so bluntly put. And yet in writing to the Telegram itself, Colonel Burton had spoken of the Johnsonian outfit now running the Ohio Democratic organization, as "the most absurd political combination ever offered as a travesty on Democracy—the Johnson-Bryan-Clarke-buffoon-bunco—all-things-for-any-office combination of anarchy and plutocracy." He speaks of "the forced endorsement of Mr. Clarke by the most servile state convention ever assembled in Ohio" and declares that "to the closing of the polls at next election I shall use my modest endeavor to rebuke the gross insult to Democracy offered by Boss Johnson."

Equally strong quotations from other parts of the state by Democrats of prominence might be multiplied did space permit. In Mr. Johnson's own Cleveland, for instance, it is signifi-

JUDGE EASON FIXES DATES FOR SESSIONS OF COURT

Munn-Mizer Litigation Settled Out of Court---News of The Offices.

Judge Eason gives the following dates for holding common pleas court in Coshocton county for the year 1904 as determined at the meeting of the common pleas judges of this district at Columbus, this week:

Court will open here, January 4, April 11, and October 17. Charles W. Seward was elected supervising judge in this district.

The case of Lucy Munn vs. Wm. A. Mizer has been settled out of court and will not come to trial. The journal entry ordered by Judge Eason is in substance as follows:

Plaintiff having withdrawn her reply to the answer of the defendant and the case being submitted to the court upon the petition and answer the court finds that on September 12, 1903, a verbal contract was entered into by the parties to the suit and in consideration of a promise of the defendant to the plaintiff made at her request that the defendant would protect her against and pay any and all taxes that might thereafter be assessed against her by reason of plaintiff having theretofore omitted to return for taxation the amount evidenced by a promissory note mentioned in the petition and defendant agreeing to pay the plaintiff the sum of $1350 and release the defendant from all liability whatsoever on the note and dismiss the suit, it is therefore ordered that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $1350 and that the case be dismissed.

Another year of tax dodging has been completed by Tom Johnson with his federal court injunction forbidding the trial of his case on its merits.

The Democratic state convention having voted on two constitutional amendments contrary to Johnson's desires, he announces he will bolt that action. Plenty will follow his precedent and bolt what they do not like.

Toledo Jones once, Bookwalter twice, Zimmerman twice, Ingalls fired with, John H. Clarke twice, is Johnson's record of offering the United States senatorship previous to presenting Clarke's name for the nomination. Lentz seemed never to have had his favor at all, nor even Allen Thurman. What was Johnson's objection? That they were staunch for silver, or that they were not wealthy men?

Johnson's Hamilton county rump delegation, when challenged in the Johnson convention, could furnish no list of members entitled to vote. The trouble was that Preacher Bigelow was voting men not members or absent. How many other counties answered the roll call in the same way?

That; oh, no. And no boss.

In 10 minutes after Dempsey was put on the ticket for supreme judge, in spite of his declaration that he would not consider it at all, all the rest of the nominations had been made, all the concluding resolutions had been passed and the convention had adjourned. No machine about that; oh, no. And no boss.

How Johnson Named His ticket, a Man a Minute.

Henry Carber's smoothness and swiftness in rushing through the Johnson slate at the close of the Johnson state convention was such a sight as no other Ohio convention ever witnessed. The work was done at the rate of "A MAN A MINUTE," and no word caucus anywhere ever slid along more thoroughly greased.

The candidate would be named just as the slate set forth, then the motion to nominate by acclamation followed, and before a quarter of the delegates knew what was going on, the secretary was calling for the nomination for the next office. If anybody desired to dissent he got no chance to do it, for the negative vote did not seem to be called for.

BIG GASSER NEAR LAFAYETTE

John Kissner Strikes a Jumbo Well on Rodgers Farm.

John N. Kissner struck gas on the James Rodgers farm one mile and a half this side of West Lafayette, late Friday afternoon, in the most paying quantity that it has been found in this vicinity.

The well came in about four o'clock and proved to be a strong one.

Mr. Kissner is exultant over the fact and considers it the best of his wells. The pressure is very strong and the well promises to be a good producer.

It lies near the road between Coshocton and West Lafayette.

Tens of thousands of votes may be lost by over-confidence to Ohio Republicans. Every gain for Johnson in this way will be claimed by him as a boost for Johnson.

"Dishonesty and repudiation" were the essence of Bryanism in 1896, according to Clarke. For that reason he bolted Bryan. How now?

has not changed, and he now refuses to help Clarke.

Cuyahoga county Democrats in 1900 refused to let Tom Johnson represent them in the Democratic national convention unless he would pledge himself to support the ticket. Is he any better today?

FIRST FALL OF THE BEAUTIFUL

Thirty Flakes Here, but Newcomerstown Gets Real Storm.

Newcomerstown had a shade the best of Coshocton, this morning in her fall of snow.

While a few flakes fluttered in the air here, Newcomerstown was enjoying a real snow-storm and the inhabitants of that thriving village who were up with the morning sun were surprised to see the surrounding hillsides coated with a thin mantle of white, while heavy snow flakes floated down upon them.

BISHOP DOANE ON DIVORCE EVIL

[By Telegraph to The Age.]

Washington, Oct. 24.—Bishop Doane in his address before the meeting of the American bishops declared that the increase of divorce had become a serious menace to the country. He took the ground that divorce with remarriage can be allowed by the church only in the case of the innocent party to a divorce granted for adultery. Bishop Doane said that where there is the "least doubt upon a question of this vital importance, moral, religious and social, the act of mercy is to safeguard the sanctity of marriage against any possible desecration."

END DRAWING NEAR

The time limit for the Word Contest is drawing to a close and the lists are beginning to come in thick and fast. They continue to be nice long lists. Many are holding off until Monday hoping they may stumble on to a few more words.

Remember that the contest will close Monday and no lists will be received after "high noon," as they say in accounts of weddings.

The results will be announced in Wednesday's paper. Of course you will all be anxious to know the prize winner but it will be a great deal of work to look over the papers carefully and this cannot be done in time for Tuesday's paper so you will have to wait until Wednesday.

NATURE'S OWN CURE

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

NATURE'S OWN CURE.

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach. Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known.

This remedy is breathed through the Hyomei in haler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hyomei. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other diseases and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hyomei not only kills the germs in the throat and nose but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It frees the mucous membrane from poisonous microbes and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1 and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

C. E. Anderson has so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that he agrees to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

SIMPLY BREATHE IT.

A Few Minutes Use of Hyomei Four Times a Day Cures Catarrh.

The pleasantest, most convenient and the only scientific method for the treatment and cure of catarrh is Hyomei. Simply put twenty drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every package and then breathe it for a few minutes four times a day.

It seems remarkable that so simple a way of treating catarrh will effect a cure, but the most important discoveries of science have always been the simplest. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head and goes into the lungs is charged with a healing balsam that kills the germs and bacilli of catarrh.

Worment is Coming.

Paris, Oct. 23.—M. Santos-Dumont, the Brazilian aeronaut, said: "If there is no modification of the conditions stipulated, I shall participate in the contest at St. Louis for the aeronaut prize. The conditions named are perfect, for the numerous difficulties prescribed enable a splendid test of the dirigibility of balloons. There will be three points to encircle, instead of one, as in the contest for the Deutsch prize, in which it sufficed to double the Eiffel tower."

Will Not Wait on America.

Panama, Oct. 23.—News has reached the isthmus that congress has agreed with the chief executive to adjourn on Nov. 14, notwithstanding the wish of many congressmen to postpone adjourning until a decision on canal matters be reached in the American congress. The opposition of congress to other plans of President Marquis becomes plainer every day.

and soothes and allays all irritation. The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement and in a short time there will be no further trouble from catarrh. Its action is rapid and lasting.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. A complete outfit costs $1.00 and if after using you can say that it has not helped you C. E. Anderson will return your money. What other treatment for catarrh is sold under a guarantee like this?

TO ALL CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Hyomei Guaranteed to Cure by C. E. Anderson or Money Refunded.

The popularity and increase in the sales of Hyomei are unique in the annals of medicine. Such astonishing cures have been made by this remarkable remedy that the proprietors have authorized C. E. Anderson to sell every package of Hyomei under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh. If it does not, the purchaser can have his money refunded by C. E. Anderson.

Hyomei is no ordinary remedy. It is the only method of treatment that sends by direct inhalation to the most remote part of the air passages, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs in the breathing organs, enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes permanent and complete cures of catarrh.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

Breathe through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day and your catarrh is cured. That's all.

If not cured C. E. Anderson will refund your money.

Richland county has paid a sorry price for Democratic rule. The Mansfield News says: "Tax grafting and fee grabbing have cost the people of this county considerably over $600,000 during the past few years." Johnson, to promote "reform," has joined with the gang that has been in this line.

Confers With Roosevelt.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Senator Culberson, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, had a conference with the president. He discussed with him the Cuban reciprocity legislation to be taken up at the extraordinary session of congress next month.

American College Resumes.

Rome, Oct. 24.—The students of the American college here have returned from their summer vacations and the school year was begun with 90 students present, the largest number in the history of the college.

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

HENRY C. FRICK.

"HISTORY OF THE CARNEGIE STEEL COMPANY."

A sensation has been created in financial circles by the publication of a handsomely bound volume entitled "History of the Carnegie Steel Company." The author is James Howard Bridge, Mr. Carnegie's former private secretary. Mr. Bridge gives what purports to be the true story of the increase in value of the Carnegie company, the credit for most of which he awards to Mr. Frick. There is evident animus against his former employer, but the story of the manner in which the "Billion Dollar Steel Trust" was formed makes absorbingly interesting reading.

SAVES TWO FROM DEATH.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by C. E. Anderson.

Riot at Football Game.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 24.—An inept riot resulted from a football game between the second teams of State college and Kentucky university on the latter's field, breaking up the game without either side scoring. Fully 300 students, including the first teams of both colleges, were mixed up in the affray. A dozen boys received black eyes and abrasures of the skin, but beyond that no damage was done. Professors and cooler heads among the older students finally separated the belligerents after 15 minutes of hard fighting. Bad feeling has always existed to some extent between the two colleges.

Sue Union For Damages.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Suit for $20,000 damages against Franklin Union No. 4 of Press Feeders was filed in the Cook county superior court by Rand McNally & Co. The claim is made on alleged losses laid to present labor troubles. Franklin union is incorporated and the funds of the union, said to be $40,000, can be attached on judgment by the court. Members of the union are made co-defendants in the action. The action of Rand McNally & Co. is said to be the first of its kind ever attempted in Chicago.

CONFESSIONS OF A PRIEST.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by C. E. Anderson. Only 50c.

Youth Charged With Assault.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 24.—William Oliver, aged 15, was arrested at his home near Altherton and committed to jail here charged with assault on Lena Aldre. It is charged that Oliver brutally mistreated the girl Tuesday as she was on her way home. Mounted farmers took the trail of the assailant, bent on lynching him if caught. After the excitement subsided Oliver started home and the father of the victim came to Terre Haute and swore out a warrant. Oliver was arrested and brought to jail before the people in the neighborhood knew he was accused.

Mr. Jacob Schaefer, of 103 West Front street, Portsmouth, O., proprietor of a very popular restaurant, says: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, first expressed in our Portsmouth papers in the summer of 1896, is stronger to-day than it was three years ago, when they cured me of backache. The results I obtained were neither imaginary nor transitory. My emphatic advice to any one in Portsmouth suffering from backache is to procure Doan's Kidney Pills at Fleher & Streich's drug store, take a course of the treatment, and the backache will disappear."

GORY GRIDIRON BATTLE IS ON

Newark-Coshocton Football Game Attracts Big Crowd.

What promises to be an exciting football struggle, is on at Riverside Park as The Age goes to press. A better football team than that of the Coshocton Athletic club team Coshocton never possessed. The pick of Coshocton's football material is on the field and victory seems assured. The game was preceded by an imposing parade of the local and the Newark teams, and a large crowd has been attracted to the ball park. The weather is ideal for football. A full account of the game will be given Monday. The Coshocton high school team with a number of rooters went to Newark at noon to battle with the high school team of that place. Verily the football honors between Coshocton and Newark are to be decided today.

"NO DIFFERENCE."

Not a Principle, but to Prove His Power in the Party.

To Crush a Candidate Because of "Curative Act," Johnson Asks Another Democratic Believer in It to Run Against Him—Richland and Stark County Cases.

One of the most interesting contributions to the campaign comes from the Mansfield News. It tells the story of the Richland county trouble inside the Democratic party, by which Representative Earhart was cheated out of his customary second term by Johnson's direct effort. Earhart was one of the eight Democrats who voted for the curative act and were assailed by Johnson for that vote. In order to prevent his renomination, Johnson sent his private secretary Burr Gogwer, to Mansfield to ask former Representative C. N. Gaumer, recent owner of the Mansfield Democratic paper, to run against Earhart. Gaumer refused to do this, and said that he agreed with Earhart that the curative act was a good thing. Gogwer assured Gaumer that this would make no difference, as all Johnson wanted was to make his word good that Earhart would not be re-elected. That is to say, Johnson didn't care anything for the curative act as a matter of principle, but simply to prove his power in the party.

Still not satisfied, Johnson tried other Democrats in Richland county to get them to run for representative. The News names Colonel T. T. Dill, Robert Hutchison, R. B. McCrory and C. Y. McCray, of Mansfield, and Riley Bricker, of Shelby, as among those applied to but refusing to do what Johnson wanted. Hutchison was invited to Cleveland, and at Johnson's house, the boss, it is understood, offered to furnish him with the "sineews of political warfare" in three figures, and besides pay all campaign expenses. Mr. Hutchison said that the Richland county Democrats wanted Earhart re-elected. Then McCray was sent for, but refused to do what was desired. Not until all the others had declined Johnson's kind offers did he take up with Hershey, the man finally nominated. How this revelation will improve Hershey's chances for being elected on the Democratic ticket in Richland county as representative, will appear on the 3rd of November.

Somewhat similar things were going on in Stark county about that time, according to the Alliance Review. That paper quotes "a prominent Democrat of Alliance" as telling a personal friend "that Tom L. Johnson had offered to give said Democrat his (Tom L. Johnson's) personal check for $2,000 if said Democrat would become a candidate for the state legislature and use the money in an effort to procure his election." Following good advice the Democrat declined to have

PANHANDLE OFFICERS TOOK IT FOR GRANTED

The management of the Pennsylvania system must be pretty well satisfied with the way things are run in Coshocton. The annual inspection of the lines took place Friday, and the three sections went through Coshocton without stopping. They went through between the hours of 3 and 4 p. m., and each section was provided with an observation car, aboard of which were a number of general managers, etc.

The Chicago single taxer imported to prepare the Johnson platform, says in his paper that the Ohio election is really for the benefit of Tom Johnson in Cleveland. The capture of the legislature "is necessary," according to his words, "to the municipal reform he (Johnson) has undertaken to accomplish in Cleveland." Note the words, for they will be denied when Johnson gets cornered.

Sylvanus Strode, Democratic candidate for representative in the Morgan Noble district, marched to Washington with Coxey. If he tells the truth about the times he will endorse Coxey's recent remark that if any of his old army of the unemployed are not working now "it is their own fault, as there is plenty of work." Democratic defeat helped to do it, too.

BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine.
